

VST Expands Product Portfolio in Gaming Console and Smartwatch

- VST's subsidiary will distribute the first batch of Xbox One in China
- Acquired the exclusive right to distribute Huawei TalkBand B1 in China

(Hong Kong, 4 September 2014) – VST Holdings Limited (“VST” or the “Company,” together with its subsidiaries collectively known as the “Group,” HKSE stock code: 00856.HK), one of the leading IT product distributors in the Asia Pacific, is pleased to announce that the Company successfully acquired distributorships of Xbox One and Huawei TalkBand B1 in China.

ECS, an 89.09%-owned subsidiary of VST, will distribute the first batch of Xbox One in China on 23 September, 2014. The Xbox One will be the first non-Chinese gaming console to be sold in China in over a decade since the PRC's ban on sales of video gaming consoles. ECS will have exclusive rights to supply the Xbox One to some internet resellers and the Group as the sole distributor will have the right to authorize and offer marketing support to open Microsoft Experience Stores.

The Company also obtained exclusive rights in China to distribute Huawei TalkBand B1, a device with a miniature 1.4” bendable OLED display, fitness tracking functions and a pop-out Bluetooth earpiece for voice calls. The Huawei TalkBand B1 works with both Android (2.3 Gingerbread and later) and iOS (5.0 and later) devices. Its features include: a step counter, tracking for distance traveled and a tally of calories burned. It can also track users' sleep.

Ms. Chow Ying Chi, Executive and COO of VST Holdings Ltd, said: “Thanks to our first-class distribution experience in the field of consumer products and the good relationships we enjoy with international companies such as Microsoft and Huawei, we successfully garnered distributorships of Xbox One and Huawei TalkBand B1 in China. These two creative new products have caught the eyes of the world before their official release. We believe they will contribute a favorable income to the Group.”
